

THE ETHICAL LITERACY® PROCESS

- The school commits to improving school culture.
- The school gathers a team of 8–10 administrators, teachers, and/or students to become ethics champions.
- A certified IGE Ethical Literacy® Coach delivers training to the team.

Ethical Literacy® Teams provide skill-building opportunities to the constituents influencing their school cultures:

- School leadership
- Teachers and staff
- Students and parents
- Community members

- Ethical Literacy® Coaches provide ongoing support to teams in the form of telephone and Web coaching, creating customized tools and activities for each team.
- Team members and Coaches come together for an annual conference to share stories, engage in workshops, and hear from experts in the field of education and ethics.

Ethical Literacy® Teams lead members of the school community to:

- Discover shared ethical values
- Develop a shared language for ethics discourse
- Sharpen ethical decision-making and articulation skills
- Integrate ethics into content areas
- Anticipate and address opportunities for moral courage
- Revitalize vision and mission statements through the lens of ethics

Building School Cultures of Integrity

SERVICES

- Training for all levels of a school's community
- Customized ethics solutions
- Data collection
- Assessment tools
- Progress reports
- Coaching sessions

Educators and students from across Latin America gather in Bolivia to work on Ethical Literacy®.

RESOURCES

- Online community providing
 - Dedicated school Web space
 - Forum to share ideas
 - Access to activities and results from other Ethical Literacy® schools
- New research from IGE's projects with national and international education organizations
- Two-day Ethical Literacy® annual conference
- Monthly electronic communication from IGE Education
- Ethics Newslite® weekly online newsletter

Call today to learn more or sign up: 800-729-2615 (US) / 207-236-6658

OUR PURPOSE

The purpose of Ethical Literacy® is to create positive learning environments that prepare today's students to be tomorrow's ethical leaders. We define these positive learning environments as "school cultures of integrity."

"Thanks to all at the Institute! Your efforts have provided me with an incredible tool. We have within our reach a program that has the potential to change the culture of our school and empower our youth."

—High school teacher
Elk Grove, Illinois , USA

ETHICAL Literacy®

www.globalethics.org

www.globalethics.org

Creating better individuals and a better world

The Institute for Global Ethics (IGE) has the tools you can use to build a culture of integrity in your school community. We will help each member of your community:

- Distinguish and articulate ethical values
- Consistently uphold core ethical values—even under pressure
- Think through any decision's potential impact
- Recognize and address right-vs.-wrong temptations as well as right-vs.-right ethical dilemmas
- Understand the need for moral courage and take a stand based on moral principle
- Constantly self-monitor and improve in the realm of ethics

About the Institute for Global Ethics

The Institute for Global Ethics (IGE) promotes ethical behavior in individuals, institutions, and nations through research, public discourse, and practical action.

About IGE's Education Department

Since 1995, IGE Education has reached school leaders, teachers, parents, and young people in countries around the world. We focus on research and services that deepen and expand knowledge about Ethical Literacy®. Our work is strengthened through our collaboration with national and international education organizations.

Institute for Global Ethics
P.O. Box 563, 11 Main Street, Camden, ME 04843 USA
800-729-2615
education@globalethics.org

Ethical Literacy® is a registered trademark of the Institute for Global Ethics.

Institute for Global Ethics
Ethical Fitness® for a Better World